Dear Folks,

I wrote yesterday, a small letter as there was nothing to write about. Everything goes on in the usual way. Nothing new.

I hope this letter will find you all well and in the best of health. For myself I am say that I am feeling fine. The doctor came in this morning to give me a raking over the coals: I asked him why and he said I have been hanging around long enough and there is nothing the matter with me. I said to him, if you want me to get out give me some clothes. In about an hour I got clothes. Shoes, socks, underwear, breeches, blouse, O.D. shirt, over-coat and cap, but no leggings. The reason for not getting leggings is so that I can't beat it from the hospital and go to town. Oh, they are wise alright. Well I expect to go up to another ward where the fellows all have clothes. In this ward I have to stay ten days and do light duty. Well, this is about all I can write today so I will close with love and kisses to all. I remain as ever you loving and affectionate Son, clothes. Shoes, socks, underwear, breeches, blouse, O.B. shirt, overcoat and cap, but no leggins. The reason for not getting leggins is so that I can't be fit from the hospital and go to town. Oh, they are wise alright. Well I expect to go up to another ward where the fellows all have clothes. In this ward I have to stay ten days and do light duty. Well this is about all I can write today so I will close with love and kisses to all. I remain as ever your loving and affectionate son
