Hobbies and Collections

The First Division Museum is a collection of the history and objects from the First Infantry Division of the US Army. Come find out what makes our collection unique and learn about how to become a collector. Scouts will go through a sensory tour of the museum, and discover what makes our collection unique to us. Learning how to become a collector, the boys will become familiar with artifacts, replicas, and emotions evoked through display.

Hometown Heroes

Walk in heroes' boots at the First Division Museum. Come talk about what it means to be a hero in the military and in your hometown. Docents will guide you through the exhibits highlighting stories of courage and teamwork. Scouts will also hear stories directly from the soldiers of the First Division through our Soldier Story interactives. Scouts will write letters, learn about our amazing combat canines and get ideas to celebrate different military holidays.

Camping

Outdoor Overnight Camping

Cantigny Park has three campsites available for rental to Scout and youth groups. Our campsites are limited to nationally recognized youth groups (i.e., BSA, GSA, AWANA, YMCA Adventure Guides, etc.).

Each site holds up to 50 people (tent camping only, trailers and campers are prohibited). Only one campsite per group is allowed. Overnight camping is year round, except during January when the park is closed, and is only allowed on Friday and Saturday nights.

Campgrounds and Education Center offer fire pits, firewood, picnic tables, trash collection, campground restrooms, showers, potable water and recycling bins.

Advanced reservations are required. For more information and to book your overnight camping, visit Cantigny.org.
